
MARKUS BLOMBERG - CURRICULUM VITAE

Passionate, Creative, and Hard-Working Digital Marketer

I deliver high-quality, audience-tailored, and channel-optimized digital marketing communication. With experience in web, digital content, SEO, CRO, ABM, UX, Marketing Automation, and digital advertising, I work in an insight-driven and results-focused way. I identify growth opportunities through analysis and transform insights into effective solutions that strengthen your digital presence. Whether the goal is to increase organic traffic, improve conversion rates, generate more and higher-quality leads, enhance customer relationships, or streamline channels, I deliver. With a broad skill set in digital marketing, as a 'Full Stack Marketer', I see the big picture and drive business growth.

Professional Experience

Content & Event Marketing Specialist, Multisoft (B2B SaaS), 2025-present

- Project manage and execute webinars and physical events, including planning, marketing, and follow-up.
- Create, edit, and publish content for web, email marketing, and social media in the form of text, video, and some graphic materials.
- Coordinate marketing activities and drive projects in close collaboration with the business units.
- Ensure structure and methodology through project planning, templates, checklists, stakeholder mapping, analyses, and performance follow-up.
- Work in HubSpot with workflows, as well as in Semrush, GA4, GDS, and Screaming Frog for analysis and SEO.
- Contribute strategically, tactically, and operationally to the marketing of complex offerings (a combination of solutions and consulting services), for example, within SEO, ABM, CRO, content management, and web editing. I have achieved strong results.

Content & SEO Manager, ABAX (B2B SaaS), June 2024-December 2024

- Developed and implemented data-driven strategies, processes, and workflows for the web, Content Marketing, and SEO (winner of the Swedish SEO Award, Software category).
- Conducted content audits, keyword analyses (Ahrefs), and other tactical analyses and tests (Hotjar, GA4, Plausible, Piwik PRO, Screaming Frog, etc.) across multiple markets.
- This included introducing content templates, content creation, Product Marketing, product newsletter (HubSpot), and landing pages.
- Planned and managed web analytics, web editing (DatoCMS), web optimization, video and design projects (often in collaboration with a design agency), and reporting to ensure measurable results.
- Contracted an SEO agency and acted as the internal POC for content-related matters.
- The challenge was to increase revenue from organic traffic. I achieved a 20% increase.

Senior Content Marketing Specialist, Hypergene (B2B SaaS), 2021-2024

- Content Marketing focusing on the web, SEO, landing pages, and articles/posts.
- Effectively connected content with channels using LinkedIn, Google Ads, Bing Ads, ABM campaigns, and Email Marketing (Upsales) to achieve marketing goals.
- Managed the newsletter, website, web editing (Umbraco), launched a new web look, and collaborated with a digital agency to improve usability, structure, engagement, and performance. This was achieved through CRO, UX, and SEO work, along with tests and analyses (GA4, GSC, Looker Studio, Hotjar, VWO, Semrush, and Screaming Frog).
- Managed the budget for the digital agency, LinkedIn, and SEM (Google Ads and Bing Ads).
- Delivered outstanding results in traffic, conversions, and channel performance.

MARKUS BLOMBERG - CURRICULUM VITAE

Senior Content Creator, Stockholmsmässan (B2B/B2C), 2019-2020

- Created and managed marketing activities and campaigns with an operational focus on different websites for various trade shows (Sitecore), SEO, Email Marketing (BizWizard), and social media (Facebook, Instagram, and LinkedIn).
- Managed budgets, media purchases, and continuously optimized campaigns based on data and A/B testing, partly in collaboration with a media agency.
- Contributed tactical knowledge and analysis regarding CRO and landing pages (Unbounce) for 30 separate websites as well as marketing and media plans.
- Prepared for the launch of the Marketing Automation tool Salesforce Marketing Cloud, including the development of training materials.
- Left due to the pandemic, along with half of the marketing team.
- The challenge was to increase digital sales, and I achieved a 50% increase.

IM Consultant / Marketing Manager, Knowit Experience (B2B/B2C), 2018-2019

- I was responsible for Knowit's Inbound Marketing offering as part of the Performance team, working as a consultant (resource/projects/retainer). This meant that I participated in and led projects (SEO, web editing, Marketing Automation, personas, CRO, etc.).
- Simultaneously, I worked as Marketing Manager for Knowit Experience's digital marketing, driving the blog forward, writing white papers, identifying and writing case studies, and working with the MA system (HubSpot), the CMS (Episerver/Optimizely), and LinkedIn.
- I was also the Partner Manager for HubSpot and learned a lot about Marketing Automation.
- The blog I managed for Knowit Experience was awarded Sweden's Best Business Blog.

Marketing Specialist, OP5 (B2B SaaS), 2016-2018

- Managed website operations, including launching a new site, handled SEO, blog content, white papers, webinars, sales support, Partner Marketing, customer surveys, PR, the digital press room (Cision and PR Newswire), Account-Based Marketing (see a column in Dagens Media), design projects, events (own events and OpenStack Days Nordic) and digital advertising, primarily on social media platforms (Facebook, X, LinkedIn).
- Handled some CRM reporting, outsourced external appointment booking services, and managed Marketing Automation (Pardot) and Email Marketing (eMarketeer) before transitioning to the MA system.
- Developed parts of the marketing strategy, but I primarily focused on operational tasks.
- ITRS Group acquired the company, and only a few employees were retained.
